

Camp Rules:

Camper's Covenant of Conduct

1. Campers are expected to participate fully in all activities of the camp.
2. Campers must respect and follow the instructions of the director and staff.
3. The staff has established "light's out" in order to insure adequate rest and safety. Campers and all adults are expected to follow the "light's out" rule.
4. Campers and staff may not have jam boxes, Walkmans, radios, pagers, CD players or TV's. We are here to enjoy God's nature.
5. Cell phones may be used only at the discretion of each camp director.
6. Girl's bathing suits must either be a one-piece non-revealing suit, or must be totally covered by a large tee-shirt.
7. Illegal drugs, alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, firearms, or fireworks are not permitted at camp.
8. The cost of repair for any damage done by the camper will be the responsibility of the camper or the camper's parent/guardian
9. Candy, gum, soda or anything sweet is not allowed in the cabins because of ant and bug problems.
10. Inappropriate behavior between campers and/or staff is not permitted.
11. In the event a camper must be dismissed for inappropriate behavior, the Director will notify the parent/guardian to pick up the camper. No refund will be made.
